DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3 and 6-17 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Ashline et al. (US Patent No. 5,649,341, hereinafter "Ashline").

Ashline discloses a quick release buckle comprising a first cam (62); a knurl bar (48); and a first spring (80) engaged with said first cam and said knurl bar. (See Fig. 1 below). Ashline further discloses that said first spring is operatively arranged to apply compressive force against said first cam and said knurl bar. (See Figs. 2-3 and col. 2, lines 60-67). Also, said knurl bar is operatively arranged to grip a belt (90) in response to said compressive force. Moreover, a housing with an integral mounting structure (72) is disclosed; and wherein said first cam is operatively arranged to rotate about said mounting structure and wherein said housing further comprises first (20) and second (65) components and said mounting structure is integral to said first component. (See figure below). Additionally, said mounting structure is integral with said second component, is extruded from said housing and is operatively arranged to engage said first and second components.

Furthermore, Ashline discloses that said housing has a first mounting structure that is a protrusion fixedly attached to said housing and where a first cam pivotally mounted on said first mounting structure is operatively arranged to rotate about said first mounting structure.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 20 is allowed.
4. Claims 4,5,18 and 19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
